FROM THE CHAIRMAN

ANDREW JENKINS

A warm Brunton Park welcome to the directors, staff, and players from Stevenage as they join us today.

Both clubs have had a very enjoyable season so far and we find ourselves side by side in the automatic places, as we speak. I've had to do these notes ahead of their Tuesday game against Crewe, but even with a positive result from that we will still be locked together in that top three block.

The manner of the win last weekend summed up the excitement we have felt for much of this campaign. That was a typical League Two fixture, tight, with both teams giving it their all, and long passages of play where it could go either way. Our players once again showed their togetherness by doing their jobs, and the reward came with the header that had us all on our feet.

I think it's fair to say we were all delighted for Ryan, because he's had a tough season with some nasty injuries. To have scored six goals despite that is testament to the player he is. And let's not forget that first goal from Jack Armer. He won't score many as good as that one, and it set us on the road to our eventual victory.

Our manager Paul Simpson must, of course, take a pat on the back, along with his staff, for the way he has brought this group together. Spirits are high, and you can tell that there's a determination to try to see it through. Nobody at the club will be making any wild predictions but it has certainly given us an exciting couple of months ahead.

Thank you once again to all of you for the way you have got behind the club with campaigns and marches, and with projects like painting the crush barriers. I know the ticket offer for the Tranmere game has been really well received and we're hoping to smash through the 10,000 home fan target that has been set by the club staff for that one. A full Brunton Park is a joy, and I'm sure we'll see increased numbers anyway as the excitement continues to build.

Finally, I would like to say that it has been excellent to see so many of our former players join us at games recently. Well done to the commercial team for their efforts, I know those who used to wear our shirt did so with pride, and they all enjoy coming back to see us.

Enjoy the game today,
Andrew Jenkins

FROM THE MANAGER

PAUL SIMPSON

Good afternoon and welcome to our game against Stevenage. I also welcome Steve, his staff, and players to Brunton Park today.

The league table shows two teams who have earned the right to be where they are at this stage of the season, and I have no doubt that this will be a tough game between sides that want to end the season on a high.

As I've said a number of times, this stage of the season is about finding a way, and that was certainly what happened at Swindon last weekend. Credit to the players because they stuck to their tasks, and the reward was the manner in which we got the winning goal.

It was made better, of course, because both the fantastic finish from Jack and the header from Ryan were right in front of the travelling support. Seeing the players and fans celebrate together, particularly a goal with what is almost the last touch of the game, is one of the main reasons why we are all in this game, and it certainly made another long journey home easier for all of us.

That type of last-minute finish with that level of importance is something we hadn't done this season, and it's another factor that helps to build belief and confidence. I do believe that hard work brings its own type of luck but, in this case, with the pressing and energy shown to regain possession, it was more about attitude and that desire to make things happen.

We'll keep enjoying what we're doing at the moment, but we'll also keep reminding ourselves that nothing is won in the middle of March. We're being hunted and chased, there are a number of teams who want to be where we are right now, and that's why it's important for us all to continue to take one game at a time.

We're not going to get it all our own way. Within the 90 minutes of games we're going to have spells where we'll have to do the ugly stuff, but it's in our hands. The 35 games gone have shown us that we have earned the right to be in the top three, but that has to remain the case in the 11 still to play.

The response to the ticket offer for the Tranmere game has been fantastic, and I can only repeat that we want our supporters to continue to turn out in numbers for all of the remaining home games. It makes a huge difference when the crowd is behind the players and roaring them on, as we have seen so many times already this season.

From where we were last February it really does feel like a club that's United. When it's like this, it doesn't guarantee anything, but it gives us one heck of a fighting chance. That's all we can ask – turn out, get behind the lads, and let's see where it takes us.

Enjoy the game.

Referee: Darren Drysdale
Attendance: 5,701 (98)

Carlisle United: Howard, Riley (Alessandra 57), Ellis (Mellor 88), Feeney (c), Mellish, Armer, Gibson, Whelan, Dickenson, Patrick, Dennis (Omotoye 86). Subs - Norman (gk), Devine, McDonald, Simeu.

Goals – Riley (53), Alessandra (63)

Stevenage: Pym, Wildin, Cuthbert (c), Prosser, List (Carter 62), Taylor, Norris, Upson (Lines 62), Reid, Barry, Bostwick. Subs - Walker (gk), Coker, Andrade, Daly, Read.

Goal – Norris (88 pen)

Booking – Taylor (33)

United rounded off 2021/22 at Brunton Park with a home game against Stevenage.

United hit the bar with just 90 seconds on the clock as Ellis hooked a clearance from a Gibson free kick back into the mix. Patrick controlled, with his back to goal, and Gibson was there to go on the overlap. His delivery curled over Pym and the keeper was relieved to see it graze the woodwork and skitter away.

There was a scare for the home defence when Norris somehow bundled an awkwardly bouncing ball past Mellish and Armer, leaving just Howard to beat. He completely miskicked as he tried to finish it off and the stopper was able to gather it up.

There were a series of half-chances in what was a scrappy lead-up to the break, with United going closest when Gibson popped the ball into the box from deep. It whisked over a jump from Dennis and ripped just past the upright.

It was Riley who provided a spark on 53 minutes when he was there to snaffle up a clearance from a Dickenson cross. He beat his man, then unleashed a stunner from distance to register his third goal of the season.

Stevenage looked for an immediate response and they turned possession over to put Upson almost clean through. He took a touch and dropped a shoulder, but Howard had closed the angles and that allowed him to make a much needed save.

The home lead was doubled just past the hour when Armer came up in support of Dickenson, with the away defence pulled out of shape. His low delivery was expertly measured, and Lewis Alessandra was there to slide it into the net after Patrick had also stretched to get a touch.

Stevenage looked out of it, with the more incisive stuff coming from the men in blue, but Prosser got on the end of a wicked free kick, only to see his goal bound header hit Carter and spoon high into the air.

Carter then nodded wide when Wildin picked him out, and Dennis bent one over at the other end with the game steadily ticking along.

The visitors were awarded a penalty when there was a grapple between Cuthbert and Whelan – which took everybody by surprise – and Norris rammed the spot kick into the back of the net to give his side a chance.

Teenager Jack Ellis left the field to a standing ovation having completed an excellent debut, and Omotoye was prevented from restoring the cushion when he was quickly closed down at the end of the game.

CUP MEETINGS
14 May 2005: Stevenage 0 – 1 United (Conference Play-Off Final)

Games Played: 25
Carlisle Wins: 12
Stevenage Wins: 9
Draws: 4

Good afternoon everyone, my name is Paul Carrigan and I work for the Carlisle United Community Sports Trust (CUFC CST) as a Community Coach.

The role involves me supporting the trust in the delivery of various programmes supporting a wide range of people within Carlisle and the surrounding areas. This could be delivery of school education work including Literacy, Numeracy and PE; helping with our wide range of school holiday football camps; Little Foxes and Junior Foxes football coaching and working in schools delivering some Premier League Primary Stars (PLPS) projects.

LAST WEEK LOOKED LIKE:

Monday – Hayton School, delivering two PE lessons concentrating on Athletics to Yrs 4/5/6 and this week our focus was “jumping” so we examined the practices of how we might jump high or how we might jump long.

Tuesday – PLPS delivery at Langwathby School where alongside our PE lesson on invasion games Yr 5/6 are looking at “community cohesion” and how the schools community can really embrace and enhance their village community by providing some closer school/village links.

Thursday – Kingmoor Junior school invokes reading with yr 6; Lunch Time Sports Clubs, two PE lessons with Yr 4 and Yr 6 looking at how our bodies react to exercise, finishing with a Football After School Club for Yr 5/6.

Friday – Great Orton Primary where I deliver PE to the whole school, one lesson to pupils in KS1 and one lesson to pupils in KS2 both concentrated on throwing and catching.

As well as working for the Community Sports Trust I coach in the Carlisle United Academy with our under 10s; this week we are preparing for a fixture against Preston North End at Frenchfields, Penrith on Sunday morning.

Cheers and up the Blues!

Paul

Blues target 10,000 home fans for Good Friday home game

March and April brings more important fixtures, as we look to build a big push towards the end of the season, and we're targeting our Good Friday fixture against Tranmere for a bumper attendance as we ask for your support at this crucial stage of the campaign.

We think we can get at least 10,000 home fans into Brunton Park for the visit of Micky Mellon's team, and we have a fantastic #10for10 promotional offer to help us to smash that 10,000 target and allow you to become part of what is the most exciting time for the club for years.

Cut price ticket entry across all age groups is the order of the day, with huge savings to be made on normal match day prices – and there will be NO price increase on the day of the game!

#10for10

Ticket prices (both standing & seating) for our meeting with Tranmere Rovers on Good Friday (7 April, kick off 3pm) are as follows:

Over 18s - £10

U18 - £5

Under-7: Free of charge (as usual)

Wheelchair: £2 (carer goes free, as normal)

Don't wait – buy now. We expect our seated areas to sell out quickly.

Go to www.carlisleunited.co.uk to purchase your match tickets online now.

Manager Paul Simpson said: "I know I've repeated myself over and over, but I have to say that our fans have been incredible home and away this season.

"With the run we've been on recently we're hoping for big numbers for the Stevenage game this weekend, and with the reduced prices it would be good for us to reach the 10,000 target for home fans on Good Friday.

"From where we were last February it feels like we have a really united club, and that's important, because we're all pulling together for the same purpose.

"Nothing has been achieved yet, but if we can turn out and support the lads, who have done their bit to get us where we are now, to help them with the next 11 it will make a massive difference.

"When we walk out of the tunnel and see and hear our fans it's huge. We're into that all-important final push, so let's do it together."

Chief executive Nigel Clibbens said: "This is far more than a simple, cheap ticket scheme. We want fans to be here early, from 11.30am, and we'll have additional attractions and activities with that in mind as we look to make it a fun day around the football.

"The challenge we have set ourselves is to break the 10,000 home fans figure. There is a real desire to see far more people come to Brunton Park and, hopefully, they'll come back for more for the remainder of the run-in.

"10,000-plus Carlisle fans shouting and cheering for Simmo and the team would be amazing to see.

"We're hoping people will get behind this campaign, spread the word and come along to enjoy the game. Everybody is saying how brilliant it would be to see Brunton Park full and bouncing. Simmo has talked about the potential he feels this club has, and this is a chance for us all to show that for real.

"Prices are low, kids are free, the team is riding high – come one everybody, let's do this together, get united behind this and let's make it #10for10."

*one awarded in abandoned game v Grimsby (16 Aug 22)

Good afternoon and welcome to today's game against Stevenage!

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS

A huge welcome to our Stevenage match sponsor Park Gate, associate sponsors Go Hardware, and match ball sponsors T&S Air Conditioning Ltd and The Beehive.

We hope you all have an enjoyable day with us in Foxy's Restaurant.

Look out for them as they take to the pitch for the official photo with the match officials and captain.

KINGMOOR PARK LEGENDS LOUNGE

Another fantastic day was had for the Grimsby fixture as we welcomed Phil Bonnyman back to Brunton Park. He joined our guests for a Q&A and then took to the pitch at half time.

Today we welcome Graham Winstanley and Bobby Parker, and they will join our guests in the lounge and will also be up in Foxy's Restaurant for a Q&A.

Graham began his career with Newcastle United in the First Division, and joined the Blues ahead of the 1969/70 season for an £8,000 fee. He remained with Carlisle for five years and was a member of the team that gained promotion to the First Division in 1974.

Bobby played for Coventry City, Carlisle United and Queen of the South. He was with us for our only season in the top division, and then moved on to Queens.

We're looking forward to seeing them both.

There are a limited number of executive ticket holders with exclusive use of the private staffed bar and plenty of space to sit and socialise in comfort before kick-off where guests will be able to take their seat alongside other members in the stand above.

IN THE SPONSOR'S LOUNGE

Here we have Vegware receiving a signed, framed home shirt, Classique Kitchens receiving their signed shirt, and Jack Oddie receiving a signed ball for their match ball sponsorship.

Congratulations to Vesta Wealth Man of the Match, Joe Garner, who was presented with his champagne.

A big thank you to our hospitality guests in Foxy's Restaurant – it was fantastic to see you all there.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

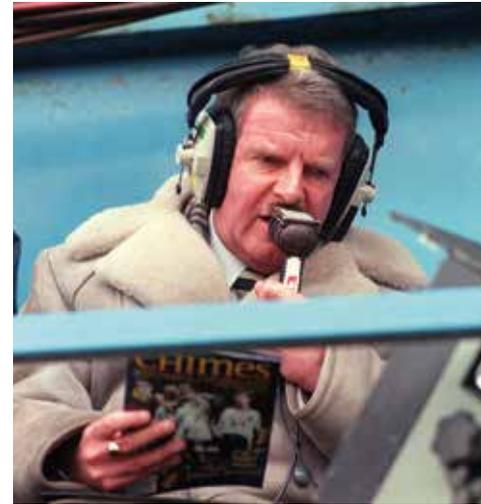

HAPPY 10TH BIRTHDAY TO BOBBY TULIP

ADVERTISING

We have various pitchside advertising boards, digital and sponsorship opportunities available.

For further information on any of the above contact the commercial team on 03300 945 930 (option 3) or email commercial@carlisleunited.co.uk – we will be happy to help with any of questions or enquiries.

Enjoy the game!

My connection today is commentators, prompted by the passing last month of one of that profession's most accomplished exponents, John Motson †. More memories of Motty in a moment, but first a nod to some earlier commentators.

Raymond Glendenning and Kenneth Wolstenholme spring to mind from the 1950s and 60s. Later Brian Moore set the standard with ITV's 'The Big Match', Carlisle featuring a few times in our 70s' heyday.

Some of these games on waterlogged or snow-covered pitches would surely be postponed these days. Brian was also a Gillingham FC chairman, while Jimmy Hill who worked in turn for ITV, BBC and Sky, had been PFA Chairman and Coventry City chairman. Jimmy was unpopular in Scotland after describing David Narey's 1982 World Cup goal against Brazil as a 'toe poke' and making other dismissive comments. The offensive chant which regularly greeted him at Scotland matches eventually changed to 'We love Jimmy Hill, he's a Scot'.

Local radio also produced personalities like our own, much-loved Derek Lacey, taken from us too young in 2009 after more than 500 commentaries on Blues' games for BBC Radio Cumbria. It's no exaggeration to say that Derek has been immortalised by his enthusiastic description of that amazing Jimmy Glass moment in May 1999.

John Motson's voice became familiar to listeners and viewers of the BBC and by the time he retired in 2018, he was recognised as 'the voice of English football'. His thorough research and preparation to have lots of interesting stats and instantly recognise the players became legendary. Inevitably circumstances sometimes worked against him, like when co-commentator Mark Lawrenson knocked over a bottle of water across Motty's notes during the European Nations Final. On 9th February 1985, John was on his way to Anfield for Liverpool v Arsenal when the game was called off and instead BBC sent him to Manchester City v Carlisle. He knew our manager, Bob Stokoe, but not the players and Mr Stokoe took him into the dressing-room and introduced them all individually. Success all round – flawless commentary and a 3-1 win for Carlisle.

Motty always readily acknowledged that his lucky break came in February 1972 when he had probably 'drawn the short straw' by being sent to commentate on the delayed Hereford United v Newcastle United FA Cup replay for Match of the Day round-up. Ronnie Radford and Ricky George, who became a lifelong friend, scored the goals as the non-league side beat the North East giants 2-1.

Film of that goal with Motty's description became one of the top FA Cup TV moments. Standing on draughty TV gantries, Motson realised that he needed really warm clothing and his sheepskin coat became famous after he appeared in a snowstorm at Wycombe's Adams Park to announce the postponement of the cup tie v Peterborough. One his coats is displayed in the National Football Museum at Manchester.

I was never lucky enough to meet Motty. He had performed the official opening of a pub near his home, and I spent a night there – in the hotel not the pub – en route to a Carlisle away game in 2017. I enjoyed a pint, but my commentator hero didn't look in that Friday night.
